The United States Circuit Court of Appeals Upholds Lower Court Ruling Against Garvey.

Was Convicted Of Fraud In Connection With Sale Of Stock In The Black Star Line Venture.

NEW YORK, January 2.—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit today affirmed the conviction of Marcus Garvey, president of the Universal Negro Improvement Association, of fraud in connection with the sale of stock in the Black Star Line.

The Black Star Line was organized to acquire vessels to transport Negroes to Africa, where a great colony was to be established.

Shares Declared Worthless. The first court decision summarized the indictment as declaring that the entire scheme was to defraud Negroes by selling them stock in the Black Star Line at $5 a share, when the defendant knew that, notwithstanding the fact that the shares were not, in all probability never could be, worth $5 each or any other sum.

The persons indicted with Garvey were acquitted, and only one count in the indictment was sustained.

In affirming the conviction, Judge Hough said:

"The people who bought Garvey's stock were told that it was a great scheme to build up a great nation in Africa, and that the shares were worth $5 each or any other sum."

OPPOSERS TO THE MARRIAGE LAW

Legislation Is Cause Of H-legal Living. Constitutionality Of The Present Law To Be Tested

Argued Before Supreme Court. BUTTE, Mont., Feb. 4.—A re-rial in the form of a case testing the constitutionality of a statute forbidding intermarriage between white and colored people will be made by the colored societies of Montana, when the state legislature does not reject the law during the present session.

Many Lives Together. "There are at least 20 cases of unmarried couples living together in Montana," said a representative of the colored societies of Montana, who are regularly married at Fort Benton. "I believe that the law is ignored in this city without sanction of the law."

Mr. Jones said that in several counties of the state it is common to marry before the law is enforced.

and a man to his death, a wife who ruins her reputation in the world's eyes to save his life, the redemption of the wife by the husband when he finds she has been unfaithful, the redemption of the husband by the wife, and the redemption of the world by the husband and wife. The story is a masterpiece of the big dramatic moment. Bessie Owen heads a splendid cast. Jack Hoot in "The Big Show" is another of his thrilling westerns, will be the Sunday feature. Al Williams will be seen in "The Air Hawk" on Monday. Action takes place in thrilling air fights and includes a hand to hand battle between men in a whirling airplane. "The Man from Rio Grande" with George Kesterson and Dorothy Lee, will be shown on Tuesday. Big Boy Williams will be featured in "Cyclone Jones" on Wednesday. Eleanor Boardman and Conrad Nagel in "The Mystery Man" will be the attraction next Thursday and Friday. It is a stirring portrayal of a straggler who is hit between the eyes by the Jax Bag, a husband who hopes for the best, and a bachelor friend. While the story concerns the experiences of a modern young couple, an interlude in nature's color photography is used to illustrate the Bible story of how Bath-Sheba betrayed her husband through desire for David and the punishment meted out by God.

THE COMET
"Gods of the Streets" will be the feature of the special this Saturday. Nastasia and Milton Sills are the stars. The story has to do with a beautiful woman who becomes a mission worker out of sheer revenge because her husband has inherited a fortune to which she is not entitled. Through the medium of love which she creates in his heart for her, she wins through to the great claim. Through the medium of love which she creates in his heart for her, she wins through to the great claim. Through the medium of love which she creates in his heart for her, she wins through to the great claim.

These features for the week will be Shirley Mason in "My Husband's Wives" on Monday; Elaine Hammerstein in "Daring Love" on Tuesday; and "The Brass Bottle" on Wednesday. Corinne Griffith will be featured in "Love's Wilderness" next Thursday and Friday. It is the story of a young Southern girl who runs away with an adventurer and takes her through scenes in Canada and the South Seas.

THE RETINA
Neil Hart will be featured in "The Left Hand Brand" at the Rialto Theatre this Saturday. Bill Cody in "McClellan" will be the Sunday special. The story relates how John Avery, when a very young child was left on her mother's doorstep by her mother who ran away with another man, and that she was rescued by her father, and by some peculiar chance discovered her father's home and her mother. "Circus Love" on Monday; "The Girl in the Red Dress" on Tuesday; "The Girl in the Red Dress" on Wednesday; and "The Girl in the Red Dress" on Thursday.
